

Speaker Bio: Dr. Ahmed has been with KDHE for 12 years. In her roles with KDHE, she generally oversees epidemiology work including Environmental Health, Syndromic Surveillance, Maternal and Child Health, Chronic Disease, Trauma, Injury, Overdose, Infectious Disease, Healthcare Associated Infections and Genomic epidemiology. She earned her Master of Public Health in International and Family Health and her Doctorate in Epidemiology from the University of Texas Houston School of Public Health.